

News Release

'Shops at Todos Santos' Drive New Investment and Businesses to Downtown Concord with Addition of Five New Restaurants

Chipotle Celebrates Grand Opening this Friday

Concord, Calif. (Feb. 7, 2019) – Beginning this Friday, February 8, the “Shops at Todos Santos,” located in Concord’s thriving historic downtown, will welcome five new restaurants from the corner of Salvio and Mt. Diablo streets to the corner of Galindo Street and Willow Pass Road.

- Chipotle will celebrate its grand opening and ribbon cutting on Friday, February 8, as it opens its second Concord location on the corner of Salvio Street at Concord Avenue
- Burgerim, a gourmet burger concept offering various size “packs” of 3-ounce hamburger patties, which can be customized with sauces and toppings, will be celebrating with a grand opening on Saturday, February 16
- Cinnaholic, a gourmet, all-vegan, cinnamon roll bakery featured on ABC’s hit TV show “Shark Tank,” will open on Salvio Street later this year
- Ramen 101 is slated to open in 2019 and specializes in fresh ramen made daily and offers vegetarian options
- Fire Wings, a casual fare offering 20 wing flavors, beer and sides including garlic noodles, Hawaiian rolls and chili cheese fries, will also be opening in 2019

Todos Santos Plaza is the heart of Concord's entertainment and business district. The downtown boasts a number of popular and successful businesses including brew pubs like E.J Phair Alehouse and Hop Grenade Craft Beer Taproom & Bottle Shop. Naan n Curry, Lima and Happy Roll bring foodies and beer lovers to enjoy Concord’s comfortable climate and diverse, vibrant culture.

For more information about new businesses coming to Concord, follow the City of Concord on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter and call John Montagh, Economic Development Manager, at the City of Concord at 925-671-3082.

###