Hawaiian Fusion

City of Concord, Parks & Recreation presented their 17th annual Hawaiian Fusion fundraising event on Sat. Sept. 9 at the Concord Senior Center. The event was emceed by former City Clerk, Mary Rae Lehman, now a part time / volunteer staff at the Concord Senior Center.

One hundred seventy five people attended the event and enjoyed the performance by Te Otui Fenua, a local Tahitian / Polynesian dance group. Some performers were students and graduates of Mt. Diablo High School. Back by popular demand, the headliner, Nathan Aweau, mesmerized the audience with his resonant voice and beautiful guitar playing.

The Parks & Recreation department and Concord Senior Citizen’s Club worked together in orchestrating the event. Retirement Funding Solutions, Carlton Senior Living, Travis Credit Union, Gurnick Academy of Medical Arts (Concord Campus) and Kaiser Permanente were among the sponsors. The event raised funds for scholarships awarded to underprivileged senior citizens who participate in many of the activities and programs at the Senior Center.

Mahalo to everyone who helped out in this event. Thank you to the donors: Ukulele Source, Min’s Kitchen, Rocco’s Ristorante Pizzeria, Berkeley Bowl, Trader Joe’s in Concord and the Commission On Aging.
