

Protect Yourself from Scams, Cons and Frauds

Concord, Calif. (Dec. 12, 2018) – With consumer fraud still a vastly underreported crime, individuals need to take steps to report scams and cons as quickly as possible. If you've been scammed, it can be deeply embarrassing and make you question your judgment. What should you do if you are a victim of fraud?

Join Randy Horton as he shares information on current scams, cons and frauds. Learn how to protect yourself and your future. Horton, an Emeryville Police Department retiree, offers his 31 years of experience with the community on Tuesday, January 15 from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the Concord Senior Center, 2727 Parkside Circle.

This seminar will educate you on how to identify and avoid terrible schemes that are designed to steal your money. For more information contact the Concord Senior Center at (925) 671-3320, or register at www.ConcordReg.org Activity #108471; the fee is $3.
