

The City of Concord has a City Council/City Manager form of government. Five Council Members and the City Treasurer are elected. The Council appoints the City Manager and the City Attorney. The City Manager appoints the City Clerk and department heads and hires employees to carry out program services. The City Council appoints qualified citizens from the community to serve on advisory boards and commissions.