Laura,

Crime statistics can be found here: <https://cityofconcord.org/1013/Crime-Statistics>. Unfortunately, we do not have the ability to breakdown the statistics at the micro level that you requested. We are working on getting software to pull data for us automatically, but we do not have it yet. Currently we can do it manually but it is time intensive and as we only have one analyst.

Thanks,

mark

Hello Joelle and Chief Bustillos,

Where can I find our city's crime statistics? If it's not available online, can a report be sent to me?

Specifically, for the past 5 years and broken down by type of crime (property crime, violent crime, human trafficking, crimes involving weapons, and incidences of domestic violence, etc). Also, can the types of crime be broken down into location, time of day, day of the week?

Thanks in advance,

Laura
